

Directions

Civil department: This department is found as soon as you enter the college right after Kotak bank

Electronics and communications department: This department is there if you come straight from the entrance and reach the dead end.

Electrical department: This department is there if you come straight from the entrance and take a left after the civil department. This is there to your right

Computer science department: This department is right opposite the electrical department and can be reached by taking left after the civil department. This is there to your left.

RVU: This building is there if you come straight from the entrance and take a left after the civil department and go straight till you reach Cauvery boys hostel, then take a left. The building will be to your right.

Small mingos(canteen): This canteen can be reached by coming straight from the entrance and taking a left after civil department. Take a right at the Electrical department. Walk straight for a few steps and it will be on the right.

Big mingos(canteen): Take a right at the entrance and go straight. Take a left at the DTL huddle and go straight past the bio technology department. The canteen will be present on your left

IEM auditorium: Take a right at the entrance and go straight. Take a left at the DTL huddle and go straight. The IEM auditorium entrance will be on your left

Information science and Engineering department- This can be reached by coming straight from the entrance and taking a left after civil department. Take a right at the Electrical department. Walk straight for a few steps, past the small canteen and it will be on the right.

Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning department- Take a right at the entrance and go straight. Take a left at the DTL huddle and go straight past the IEM auditorium. The bio technology department will be on your right, AIML department is present in the right half of the same building

Bio technology- Take a right at the entrance and go straight. Take a left at the DTL huddle and go straight past the IEM auditorium. The bio technology department will be on your right